"Fabulous little zoo "

We had a warm and helpful welcome to this zoo. We were delighted to be guided by a young man of the staff who was feeding the otters, the mongoose and the lemurs which was great fun. We went into the lemur area which is open to the public so the lemurs run around you. He was hand feeding them and explaining to us in French about them. We walked around the rest of the zoo on our own and saw the snow leopards and the White Tiger Ranjah. The birds were lovely and it was great to walk through the area with wallabies, alpacas in. The zoo has been able to reintroduce animals back to their native areas and takes that part of their work very seriously. A lovely afternoon

We thought this was one of the best zoos we have ever visited. Such a nice surprise for a place so tucked away. Can't recommend it enough.
